

Crime in prisons

This page is from APP, the official source of professional practice for policing.

First published 7 July 2015 Updated 30 January 2020

Written by College of Policing

2 mins read

Protocols and Memoranda of Understanding (MoUs) have been developed between the National Police Chiefs Council and relevant other bodies to address criminality in prisons. These include:

- NOMS \(2019\) The Appropriate Handling of Crimes in Prisons. Protocol between National Offender Management Service, Association of Chief Police Officers and Crown Prosecution Service
- HMPs \(2019\) Memorandum of Understanding: An agreement between Her Majesty's Prison and Probation Service and the National Police Chiefs' Council regarding corruption in prisons and probation

Additional advice includes:

- HM Prison and Probation Service \(n.d.\) Guidance Toolkit – Version 2; Police support to Prisons, and the Crime in Prison process (Restricted access – requires login to College Learn)
- Investigating Deaths in Prisons
- The Interviewing of Suspects who have allegedly Assaulted Prison Officers in Prison Establishments \(Public and Private\) which are situated in other Force areas
- NOMS \(2015\) Commencement of Legislation: Possession of Offensive Weapons in Prison
- NOMS \(2015\) Commencement of Section 79: Offence of throwing articles into prisons

Tags

Investigation