

International investigation reference material and forms

This page is from APP, the official source of professional practice for policing.

First published 12 April 2019 Updated 17 April 2026

Written by College of Policing

1 min read

Interpol guidance documents and forms are forthcoming.

Joint International Crime Centre (JICC)

The Joint International Crime Centre (JICC) was established in April 2023, consolidating and enhancing the UK's international law enforcement cooperation and coordination capabilities. It provides the UK an opportunity to perform a greater and more efficient role in responding to the growing threats from transnational criminality. The JICC drives, coordinates and supports the response of UK policing and law enforcement to international crime.

Tel – 0300 790 0000

Email - JICC@NCA.gov.uk

Joint International Crime Centre (JICC) guidance documents and forms

To support investigators a range of reference material and forms are available.

Tags

Investigation