How we'll get to where we think policing should be by 2030

News 1 min read

The College of Policing, the Association of Police and Crime Commissioners (APCC) and the National Police Chiefs' Council (NPCC) have published Policing Vision 2030. This aims to build on the successes of the Policing Vision 2025 to make transformative change across the whole of policing.

The refreshed vision will enable a focus across policing on the main priorities that need to be delivered before the turn of the decade.

It has been agreed by the joint chairs of the Strategic Policing Partnership Board, our CEO Chief Constable Andy Marsh, APCC Chair Marc Jones, and NPCC Chair Martin Hewitt.
