

Asset recovery

About recovering assets following residential burglary.

First published 4 October 2023

The aim of asset recovery is to make best use of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 to disrupt crime and reduce the harm caused to communities.

Effective and early financial investigation can identify assets that can be seized, removing the financial benefit of burglary.

For further information, see APP on Financial investigation – Asset recovery.

Tags

Neighbourhood policing Investigation