

Analysis - Guidance overview

This page is from APP, the official source of professional practice for policing.

First published 23 October 2013

Analysis is an important tool for policing. It is used to understand crime and disorder issues and provide insight, clarity and context to decision makers. This is an increasingly key function in an environment of:

- complex crime problems
- significant and diverse volumes of data
- limited resources
- maximising efficiency and effectiveness

Tags

Intelligence management